Comparada a Jogos Vorazes, trilogia Red Rising critica a sociedade em ficção científica repleta de ação e vingança

"Fúria Vermelha" é o primeiro volume da trilogia Red Rising. A distopia, comparada a "Jogos vorazes" por misturar ação e crítica social, será adaptada para o cinema por Marc Forster, diretor de "Guerra mundial Z". O romance se passa em um futuro não tão distante, no qual o homem domina a tecnologia das viagens interplanetárias e começa a colonizar outros planetas. Marte é uma das primeiras colônias instaladas, e possui uma sociedade estratificada, em que o papel de cada indivíduo é definido pela hereditariedade e a ascensão social é impossível. Um regime arcaico, de castas, contrasta com a tecnologia do período.

Darrow é um dos jovens nascidos em Marte e sua vida está bem longe da felicidade. Ele é um Vermelho, faz parte da base da pirâmide social, composta por operários. Passa seus dias escavando túneis subterrâneos a mando das autoridades, pois essa seria a única forma de, um dia, as próximas gerações habitarem a superfície do planeta. Dia após dia, ele cava, pensando em um futuro melhor e sem jamais ver a luz do sol.

Até que Darrow percebe que o mundo em que vive é uma mentira, e decide desvendar o que há por trás daquele sistema opressor. Com a ajuda de um misterioso grupo de rebeldes, ele descobre a verdade: que a superfície de Marte já havia sido habitada, porém o privilégio de viver ao sol é permitido apenas aos Ouros, a classe dominante. Os Vermelhos, na verdade, são usados como escravos.

Tomado pela vingança e com a ajuda de outros rebeldes, Darrow vai para a superfície e se infiltra entre os Ouros. Lá, ele tem que ser forte o suficiente para não se deixar levar pelos prazeres fáceis de uma vida confortável, enquanto tenta proteger sua identidade, além de se envolver em intrigas que darão início a uma guerra muito maior do que ele poderia esperar.

Um sucesso internacional, "Fúria Vermelha" figurou na lista de mais vendidos do New York Times, foi considerado o livro do mês da Amazon em fevereiro de 2014 e seus direitos foram comprados pela Universal Pictures.
