After a drunken night of partying, Premier League footballer Ben Jimmer finds five years of carefully denying his sexuality washed down the drain. And for all that he could deny it... Well, he doesn't want to.

His fake romance with Henry Brown was supposed to be a quick fix, a weapon against speculation that might pair him with any odd teammate. But of course, things don't always turn out quite as planned, and when they find themselves falling into a friends-with-benefits arrangement, Ben is more than happy for the chance to gain some actual, first-hand experience.

Falling for Henry, though? Now that was definitely not part of the plan.
